Program Note: 10 tubs of burn cream were purchased in the US and USD 5500 was brought in cash to aid women in Herat, potentially in the hospital and prison. Two nights before I was to leave Kabul for Herat fighting broke out between Governor Ismael Khan and military supporters of President Hamid Karzai. The situation did not stabilize sufficiently before I left the country. The burn cream was donated to Hope hospital in Kabul and the money brought back home. I will attempt to visit Herat on my next trip.
